

Rowe School of Business

Lecturer/Assistant Professor/Associate Professor of Finance

The Rowe School of Business (RSB) invites applications for a probationary tenure-track or tenure-track appointment in Finance at the rank of Lecturer, Assistant or Associate Professor (dependent upon qualifications and experience), commencing Fall 2022 (negotiable). Applicants must have a PhD (or ABD near completion) in Finance or a related field. Evidence of strong research performance / potential and teaching effectiveness appropriate to the rank are required. Candidates must be able to meet the School's accrediting body's (AACSB) academic qualification requirements.

The successful applicant will be expected to engage in leading-edge research, to teach courses in Finance at the undergraduate and graduate levels, to supervise graduate thesis students, and to contribute to the academic life of the university through committee service and other activities. Candidates from all areas of finance are encouraged to apply. Preference will be given to candidates with demonstrated record / strong potential for high-quality research leading to top tier publications and obtaining external research funding. A professional finance designation in good standing would be considered an asset but is not required.

The RSB is housed in Dalhousie University's Faculty of Management. We offer life-changing management education in a diverse and inclusive community that inspires social and economic innovation and responsible action. We are a leader in innovative, experiential learning and we have ambitious research aspirations. Our vision is a world where talented people from the private, public, and not-for-profit sectors work together to create social and economic value. And we embrace a culture of collaboration and connection. Our Faculty is in an exciting period of renewal.

The RSB is an AACSB-accredited school with a strong research culture and a member of EFMD and EFMD Global Network. It serves over 1800 students and prides itself on developing the next generation of innovative leaders. It specializes in experiential learning including residencies, consulting projects, co-op work terms, internships, and new venture creation. Collaboration with our employer partners from around the globe bring opportunity to our students and relevancy to our programs (the Bachelor of Commerce Co-op, Bachelor of Management, Corporate Residency MBA, Blended/Online MBA in Financial Services or Leadership, Executive Education, and MSc. in Business).

Dalhousie University (<https://www.dal.ca>) is one of Canada's leading teaching and research universities. It is a member of the U15 (a collective of some of Canada's most research-intensive universities). Dalhousie's mission is to lift the intellectual, social, and economic vitality of our local, national, and global communities through an institution-wide commitment to a world-class student experience, interdisciplinary collaboration, and mutual respect and inclusion in all aspects of our academic, research, and civic priorities.

Dalhousie University is located in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada. Halifax is a vibrant coastal capital city and is the business, academic, and medical centre for Canada's east coast. It offers a high quality of life with various indoor and outdoor recreation opportunities in and near the city and rich arts and cultural institutions, including an excellent library system and plans for a new art gallery.

Information about the Rowe School of Business and its programs may be found at <http://www.dal.ca/faculty/management/rsb.html>

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply. However, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Dalhousie University is committed to fostering a collegial culture grounded in diversity and inclusiveness. The university encourages applications from Indigenous persons, persons with a disability, racially visible persons, women, persons of minority sexual orientations and/or gender identity, and all candidates who would contribute to the diversity of our community. For more information, please visit <https://www.dal.ca/hiringfordiversity>.

Applications must be submitted electronically through the Dal Faculty Career Site: <https://dal.peopleadmin.ca/postings/7241>.

Evaluation of applicants will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.