About Us

MacEwan University is where caring faculty help people connect their passions to their future paths. Located in the heart of Edmonton's diverse and dynamic downtown community, and on the traditional lands of Treaty 6 First Nations and homelands of the Métis people, MacEwan is known for exceptional undergraduate learning. With its dedication to teaching excellence, informed by scholarly research, innovation, and creative activity, MacEwan provides an exceptional collaborative and supportive learning environment with a commitment to human rights, environmental sustainability, and opportunities for community engagement. We are committed to creating an equitable, diverse, inclusive, and welcoming community for all peoples, cultures, and identities.

Our comprehensive undergraduate university offers 59 programs to more than 18,000 full- and part-time students in business, communications, community and human services, design, fine and performing arts, health, humanities, natural science, nursing, public safety, and social science. Through a wide array of experiential learning opportunities, and strategic relationships in the community, we partner with others to produce graduates of stature. Along with a robust grounding in their chosen disciplines, MacEwan students are given durable life skills that prepare them to take on the world.

The Opportunity

The Department of Accounting and Finance in the School of Business invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor, commencing July 1, 2024 (or sooner, depending on availability), subject to final budgetary approval. Your focus will be to continue your scholarly work and teach in finance.

You have expertise in one of the following areas:

- Options;
- Foreign exchange;
- Hedging; or
- Portfolio management.

You have evidence of effective teaching of courses at the undergraduate level, and a record of scholarly work in the field. Experience in industry, government or not-for-profit organizations is an asset.

You have a Ph.D. or equivalent, or are nearing the completion of your doctorate, from an accredited institution. A Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) or Certified Financial Planner (CFP) designation is an asset.

In your application, you should submit a cover letter, a curriculum vitae, a teaching dossier (including your teaching philosophy and recent teaching evaluations), a statement of research interests, and a sample of your research work. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted by the Department Chair to provide three (3) letters of reference sent directly from referees, and copies of official transcripts sent directly from the institutions where you completed your degrees.

Questions about this opportunity may be addressed to the Department Chair, Gregory Springate, at SpringateG@macewan.ca.

How to Apply:

Closing Date: A review of applications will begin November 20, 2023, and continue until a suitable candidate is found.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

This position is included under the Faculty Association collective agreement.

Salary: Commensurate with qualifications and experience

Diversity Statement

MacEwan University is committed to fostering the principles of equity, diversity, and inclusion within our community, and we are dedicated to removing barriers that have been historically encountered and are currently experienced by some members of our society. We welcome and encourage applications from Indigenous peoples, racialized persons, visible minorities, women, persons with disabilities, sexual and gender minorities, and members of all equity-deserving groups. We believe that the diversity of our students, staff, and faculty serves as a strength of our institution and benefit to society. We are committed to ensuring full and inclusive participation for all in our community.

Accessibility Statement

We strive to provide an inclusive and barrier-free work environment, beginning with the hiring process. If you require accommodation, we want to ensure you have the support you need to showcase your abilities. Please contact humanresources@macewan.ca and we will support you to the best of our ability.
